

Men of Harlech

Traditional Welsh

Alto: Men of Harlech, wake from sleeping,
Saxon tyrants are now creeping,
Like a river, onward sweeping,
Swiftly through the night.

Alto: Side by side with spear and bowmen
With your valour you shall show men
How to vanquish Saxon foe-men
Put them all to flight.

Alto: Fight for wives and mothers
Children, sisters, brothers.
Your country needs your gallant deeds
To save yourself and others.

Alto: Whilst the battle drums are beating
This your war cry, this your greeting
No surrender, no retreating
Harlech wins the fight.
